25X1		Comments
25X1	3.	According to available information, LIU Wen-hui is a former Szechuan warlord who surrendered his forces to the Chinese Communists.  Comment. A New York Times article appearing on 5 March 1950 reported that LIU had died.
25X1	4.	LI as a participant in the Communist propaganda campaign to subvert anti-Communist resistance in the Heishui area in June 1951.
25X1 25X1		Comment. The Hong Kong Hua Ch'lao Jih Pac on 15 October 1952 named LI as political commissar of the Szechuan Military District. The NCNA reported LI as chairman of the Szechuan Provincial People's Government and former chief of the West Szechuan People's Administration Office on 14 August 1952. The same agency, on 18 Tanuary 1953, again reported him in the former capacity and also as a member of the Southwest Military and Administrative Committee.
